REMINISCENCES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings From the Records Left By Men Who Laid the Foundation of Our County.

On the last of December, 1881, another fine hotel was added to the public accommodations of Redwood City by the opening of the Redwood City House by C. J. Hynding. In speaking of the new hotel the Times and Gazette of that date describes it as one of the finest buildings of the town and as being arranged in an up to date and complete manner for the business for which it has been especially built by Mr. Hynding. The house then contained, in addition to the family rooms of the prporietor, accommodations for 25 lodgers and a dining room capable of serving at least 100 persons. The opening of the hotel was made the occasion of a special reception given by Mr. Hynding to his friends, when a banquet was spread in the dining room, the evening closing with a dance.

Here is the way a correspondent of a local paper from San Mateo describes an effort to build a railroad down the coast side in 1881: "It was reported here last week that ten men and ten gophers had started work on the new Coast Railroad. This week it is reported that the ten men have quit, but the gophers have staid with the work."

In the latter part of September, 1881, this town was the scene of a series of attempts at incendiarism, apparently the work of a gang of young toughs, which stirred up considerable feeling and lead to some threats of severe handling of the suspected offenders. Whether the suspicion directed at the youthful scamps was correct, it appears to be certain that the threats of condign punishment had a deterrent effect as their public utterance put an abrupt end to the fires. The first attempt laid at the doors of the unruly crowd was the setting on fire of Hadler's building on Main street. Fortunately this fire was discovered in its incipiency by P. P. Chamberlain and B. F. Cooper and was extinguished by their efforts before serious damage was done. That this fire was of at least suspicious origin no one at the time seems to have doubted, but nothing could be found to make a certainty of suspicion and in the hope that it would be the last the matter was allwoed to drop. Just a week later the old town jail, located on the island, just south of John Poole's place, and which had not been used for several years and had been left to stand deserted, was set on fire and entirely destroyed. Circumstances pointed to this as the work of the same gang, and the destruction of the old place was treated by the young roughs as a sort of a good joke. The people of the town however, became fully alarmed and failed to see the fun. The matter was taken up by the officials and people and it was this which lead to threats which finally put an end to this sort of exhibitions of hoodlumized humor.

On the 26th of November, 1881, the Catholic community of San Mateo county, as well as the people generally, met with a severe loss in the death of Rev. Father W. A. Bowman, pastor of the Catholic church at San Mateo, a man who had devoted many years of his life to the upbuilding of the religious sentiments of the people of San Mateo county, and especially of the section bordering upon the bay. Indirectly the death of Father Bowman came as the result of an over strain of his constitution in endeavoring to carry too great a strain in taking over largely the work of the parish of Redwood City in addition to his own after the death of Father Dempsey, which had occurred some six months before. Father Bowman was a native of Maine, where he was born in 1840. His early education was received in the public schools of Mercer county, Pennsylvania, but while still a boy he was sent to an educational institution in Europe conducted by the Franciscan Brothers, and determining to devote his life to the priesthood was sent by the Archbishop to Rome where he studied theology in the college of Propaganda and received his ordination. In 1864 he returned to the United States and was immediately sent to this coast. Upon his arrival he was designated by the Archbishop as assistant to Father Dempsey in this county and here he remained until death relieved him of his labors, ever holding the love of his parishoners and the esteem of the entire community.

On the evening of December 24, 1881, Redwood City Lodge of Masons installed the following as its officers for the Masonic year: G. W. Fox, worshipful master; A. Hanson, senior warden; C. Jacobus, treasurer; P. P. Chamberlain, secretary, J. White, senior deacon; L. Bartholomew, junior deacon; H. B. Thompson and James Crowe, stewards; John Poole, tyler. After the installation the new officers entertained their brethren with a banquet at the Tremont House.

Mrs. Noll has added an ice cream department to her store in the Drew building.

May Dredge to Center of Town

Last Friday Frank Marcus, Geo. W. Lovie and Edwin B. Fox, a committee from the Board of Trade waited on Colonel Biddle, the government engineer in San Francisco, and requested that the surplus money from the dredging of the creek be expended in deepening the stream from the deep-water wharf up to the bridge at East Bradford street. Colonel Biddle promised to recommend that the work be done and on Monday he sent an engineer down to make a preliminary survey of the creek.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

A GOOD INVESTMENT.

The action of the City Council in voting a substantial contribution to the support of the work of the San Mateo County Development Association is one which should—and undoubtedly will—receive the hearty commendation of every tax payer. At the present time no other investment of the funds of the city promises better returns for the money expended. In common with other sections of the county, Redwood City stands in crying need of united and substantial work for of united and substantial work for the betterment of many conditions which in the past have proven a serious handicap to her growth. For the removal of some of these undesirable conditions this association has already prepared plans which promise good results and if accomplished will amply repay the investment.

Chief among these is announced an apparently effective plan for the securing of a reduction of commutation rates between this city and the metropolis. The accomplishment of this one purpose would prove a great stimulus to business enterprises of all kinds and go far to induce a desirable increase in our population, thus enhancing property values.

That the greatest good may be accomplished we must not stop here, however. That its work may be effective, that association must have prviate as well as spublic support, both financial and moral. Results such as are desired cannot be achieved without the expenditure of considerable sums of money. To a large extent owners of property and those engaged in mercantile pursuits will be among the first to reap the benefits of this work, and these should be ready to contribute for their own benefit.

Again if the demands of the Association are to receive consideration at the hands of those with whom it is necessary to deal in this important matter it must be made evident that the organization is a thoroughly representative one, that it speaks the united sentiment of the people of San Mateo county and that the people generally are ready to insist upon what they believe to be their rights. This means that it must be made evident that the Association numbers among its members people from all walks of life. For this reason it is essential that there should be a large membership from every section, and every class. Now that the organization has received the official endorsementof practically every community in the county there should be no hesitancy on the part of the individual to give his personal support. Certainly the small amount asked in monthly contributions will be well repaid.

GET TOGETHER SPIRIT BECOMES CONTAGIOUS

People in North End of County Show Wild Enthusiasm for Development

MEETING AT BELMONT TONIGHT

Enthusiasts for County Improvement Will Gather for Another Rousing Rally

"Get together, stick together, boost, consolidate and work for the greatest county in the state." —Slogan delivered by C. McGregor of Burlingame at the Development Association meeting at San Bruno last Saturday.

Now, what do you think of it after reading it over twice?. It sounds like a winner does'nt it; and let this sink in; it is one. Remember how in your youthful days you would wander a score of miles or more on a winter's night to attend a dance with your best girl. You're older now, but call upon some of that white hot enthusiasm of your youth and be present at the Belmont school house on this Saturday night at 8 o'clock to show with your presence, suggestions and influence that you are not yet in the has-been class and that you intend to work "for the greatest county in the state."

Once upon a time San Bruno had the reputation of being the most rabid village in the county for partizanship but it was early evident at the district meeting held there last Saturday, presided over by Rev. W. A. Brewer, president of the Association, that former differences have been relegated to the ashheaps and that San Bruno has acquired the virus of the rampant boost bug with which the Association is so rapidly inoculating the county at large. J. M. Custer, San Bruno's delegate on the Board of Governors, was the first speaker called upon by Chairman Brewer and after holding the floor a few moments gave way to Supervisor William. H. Brown, who said that he ould gladly father a resolution before the Board of Supervisors for a county allowance of $250 a month to the organization's treasury and that he believed the general problem of good roads in the county was in a fair way to be handled by a general bond issue in the near future.

"We'll try to put that money to the best possible use and will not spend it foolishly", replied Chairman Brewer. "San Mateo county is without a proper exhibit in the rooms in the San Francisco ferry building of the California Development Board," stated W. J. Martin in humorously relating his experiences in trailing a bunch of eastern tourists that were seeking some information on this section. Soon afterwards the speaker gave the key to what will be the Association's first big fight—that against the Southern Pacific to secure lower transportation rates and for which careful plans are already being laid. "They tell me there is no law where by the railroad commission can put the clamps on the Southern Pacific in passenger rates where discrimination is shown. If not, we must see that more power comes to them. And we'll get population,industry an cheaper fares with organization and help of the county," he continued. Chairman Brewer then stated that Geo. C. Ross, attorney for the Association, was investigating the legal quirks of the transportation problem and that if there was any aid to be gained from the commission that an assault would be made on that outpost when the Association was prepared with the certainty of a graceful surrender on the part of the commission as its membership now stands.

T. L. Hickey of South San Francisco took up the thread of thought suggested by a remark of the Chairman's on finances and stated that he saw no reason why at least 1000 or 2000 men in the county should not subscribe $1 a month to the movement if they were properly approached. "A 1,000 a month is not too high a mark. It's impossible to get too much," declared Judge E. E. Cunningham. The oldest booster of them all went on to explain that San Bruno had 140 commuters that were paying the Southern Pacific $5 every month for their commutation tickets. "Suppose that we get their fares reduced to $3. Why should they not give us one of those dollars that we save for them to carry on our good work", he argued, opening a line for a large membership among those who travel back and forth as well as suggesting that the aid of every woman's club in the county be secured. And quick on the heels of Cunningham's address, George C. Ross was greeted with appause when he stated that the Redwood City Realty Company had authorized the payment of $5 a month to the movement.

Mrs. C. E. Laumeister, former president of the San Bruno Woman's Club, was present at the meeting as well as a number of other ladies and was called upon by the chairman. Mrs. Laumeister heartily pledged the support of her club and assured the assembled boosters that it would be glad to corporate with the Association at any time. G. J. McGregor of Burlingame made a stirring speech, appealing to the people of San Bruno to assure the success of their meeting by their cooperate and determined effort.

Success depends on the united keystone of the county's citizenship" he proclaimed, and Chairman Brewer bumorausly laid before the meeting the folly of traveling in circles with a story aof the bibulous statesmen of the historic "legislature of a thousand drinks."

John A. Beam of Lomita Park suggested that a few of the members of the Board of Governors attend one of the meetings of the improvement club at that point and his suggestion was immediately snapped up, opening as it did one more avenue for increasedmembership. Among the other speakers were David Martin, James T. O'Keefe, E. I. Woodman and Wm. A. Best. Best, a San Franisco man was there by mistake but at that showed the spirit pervading the soul of the real booster by offering the aid of his San Bruno Avenue Improvement Club. The meeting closed enthusiastically with the determination to make the next district meeting to be held at Belmont on the suggestion of Asa Hull of San Carlos, one of the most successful ever held.

BOARD OF TRADE AT BOOSTER BANQUET

Merchants of Redwood City Gather for Their Annual Social Reunion

PLAN FOR A GREATER COUNTY

Mayor Merrill Reviews the Past and Predicts Great Improvement for City's Future.

Last Monday evening was "boosters night" with the business men of Redwood City, when something more than 100 members of the Board of Trade laidaside for a time all thoughts of personal gain and gathered about the festal board to enjoy the good things of life tand to discuss the community need of the future. And never was the spirit of get to gether of unity of purpose for the general good more enthusiastically displayed. For a time the staid business and professional men laid aside his individual cares and aspirations and joined with the manufacturer and mechanic in voicing the spirit of progress which held universal sway.

Shortly before 8 o'clock the members of the Board of Trade and their guests were ushered into the tastefully prepared banquet rooms, and for more than an hour a feast such as only mine host Victor Bernasque can prepare, enlivened by strains of Jamieson's Orchestra, was enjoyed. And this was indeed a pleasant hour, one that will long linger in the minds of the participants. The utmost of good cheer prevailed and for the time all but the inner man seemed to have been forgotten. With the srvice of the last course a change came over the scene, however, and from that time until midnight a feast of reason was enjoyed. Plans and prospects for the future were the sole thoughts in the mind of each member of the party. How best to promote the general good was the universal theme, and among them all there was neither a discordant nor dispondent note.

After welcoming the members of the Board of Trade and expressing his unbounded confidence in the future—urging all to a renewed effort for the advancement of the business interests of the city—President Tuchsen introduced A. D. Walsh as the master of ceremonies for the evening. Before taking his seat Mr. Tuchsen took occasion to point out to his hearers the importance to the future prosperity of the section of the projected street railway and to urge upon them the necessity for a generous support of this enterprise, designed not only to insure to Redwood City the trade of one of its most prosperous rural communities but to render accessible a vast factory district which mus some day become the support of a community of prosperous laboring people. This project was one which in his estimation well warranted universal home support, and called for an enthusiastic campaign of boosting. Here was presented an opportunity for the investment of home capital for the furtherence of home industries.

In presenting the first speaker of the evening, Mr. Walsh gave it as his opinion that the solution of the problem of a way to future advancement of the interests of San Mateo county had been found in the formation of the San Mateo County Development Association, where all good might be brought to work with a common people. As one best fitted to present the needs and work of the association he introduced W.J. Martin of South San Francisco, the vice president of the association.

In presenting his subjet Mr. Martin said that every successful movement must of necessity have a meaning distinctly its own, and the movement for the organization of the San Mateo County Development Association certainly had a meaning distinctly its own. This was for the unification of the interests of San Mateo county into one organized and carefully planned effort to first remedy conditions which all agreed had in the past conspired against the advancement which should have been made. Too long had the apparent motto of the people been "everything comes to him who waits." Now it is time for the people to wake up and prepare to act, to fight if necessary for what all agree were their rights. Of these the most important at this time is the transportation rate, both for single fair and commutation. This it will be the first effort of the association to remedy, but if we are to hope for success we must approach the subject in an intelligent manner and to do this it is the intention to secure assistance. Another important work is the systematic and thorough advertising of the county during the coming four years To do these things require money and this should be contributed without hesitancy for the reason that a profit on the investment is assured. No one section is especially interested in the movement and no one section can alone support the work. it must be a concerted and popular movement. Throughout Mr. Martin's address was an eloquent and forceful plea for united effort coupled with the assurance of brigh prospects for the future.

Mr. Walsh next introduced R. D. Barret of San Francisco as a gentleman who was a consistent believer in Greater San Francisco and one who was well informed on the subject. For some time Mr. Barrett, who spends much of his time in Redwood City, discussed the legal phases of the movement for the extension of the corporation territory of San Francisco and the effect upon neighboring communities and urged his hearers to at least organize for consideration of the subject.

As a speaker well fitted to enlighten the gathering on the work of the administration of city affairs, Chairman Walsh introduced Mayor G. A. Merrill. In opening his interesting address Mr. Merrill somewhat surprised the majority of his hearers by practically announcing his determination to lay down his official cares at the end of his present term of office, remarking that he desired that this should be the last time he would address the Board as an official representative of the municipality. As an introductory to his remarks on the general conditions of the present and future improvements the Mayor devotde some time to a general review of the financial conditions of the city during his administration, calling attention to the fact that when he went into office the treasury was without a surplus. Since that time, notwithstanding the fact that a number of improvements had been made a small surplus had been accumulated. One of the most serious problems which had confronted the trustees was the water system, which for years, he said had been a cause of constant financial loss to the city. Through carefully considered attention to details of operation the system had at last been brought to a condition where it was now a source of monthly profit, gradually accumulating a surplus which mght be used eventually either as a basis for reduction of rates or extension of the system as the city expanded. To accomplish this desirable result had necessitated the employment of skilled assistants, mechanics who were versed in the work required. In this manner the city had been enabled to secure pay for the full service rendered wher in the past faulty meters and other devices had been the cause of constant loss. Other public improvements which had occasioned the expenditure of considerable sums of money were the construction of the East Bradford street bridge, the improvement of the water system incident to the conncetion with the new reservior and the consequent increase in pressure which had resulted in more adequate fire protection.. The istallation of the fire alarm system, which had just been completed, was referred to as another expense which all would admit was certainly a good investment. Another improvement now well under way which for some time had required expert mechanics was the reformation of the old and antiquated light system, which it was expected would in the near future provide a vastly improved light at a diminished cost. While he admitted that some mistakes had been made in the plans for the retaining walls and storm sewers on the County road, Mr. Merrill explained that the work done had in reality resulted in no loss and stated emphatically that there was still an aboundance of money in that fund to complete the work as revised in the light of unexpected experience. Turning from the past to a view of the future, the speaker dwelt at some length upon the improvements now being made on the railroad right of way through the city. These improvements had been secured from the railway company only after a prolonged effort which at its inception had required much legal research. This work he said was now being systematically pursued and it was his hope that before the end of his official term the entire right of way would be in perfect condition. In spite of many unexpected obstacles he had constantly urged progress upon the spur track being laid through the city to the lands of the factory district. But one obstacle now remained and he hoped soon to see this removed, when the city would be provided with direct railway communication with all of the waterfront territory as far as the cod fishery, opening up a vast commercial advantage. In closing, Mayor Merrill urged that the business men of the city give tangible support to the projected street railway enterprise as one which promises immense commercial advantage. The promoters of this enterprise were men who were interested in the development of the city and were ready to back their enterprise with their own money, but that the project may be carried to a successful conclusion they must have the support of the community which must ultimately reap a large commercial advantage. This railway is for the benefit of the people of Redwood City and must be built by home capital. That all this would be accomplished, and that without delay, Mr. Merrill expressed the utmost confidnece.

Mayor Merrill was followed by G. W. Lovie of this city and W. J. Doubleday of Millbrae, both of whom urged cooperation in the work of development and prophesied a bright future for boththecity and county. Health Officer Dr. J. L. Ross provided the humor of the season of speech making, telling in a jocular manner of the almost perfect health conditions of the city and put the guests in condition to retire to their homes in the best of spirits.

Thus passed an evneing which will be long regarded as a particularly bright spot in the history of the Board of Trade. Throughout the affair was a most enjoyable one and reflects much credit upon the committee in charge, which consisted of Messrs A. D. Walsh, R. F. Chilcott and C. G. Landscheit.

Assessor's Instructions

To Owners of Real Estate and Personal Property.

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where his property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

If you hold mortgages against others send in a mortgage statement showing amount due on each mortgage on the first Monday in March ot 12 o'clock m.

No change can be made by the Assessor after he turns over his books to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in July. The Board then sets as a Board of Equalization during the month of July.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble. and very likely cause yourself expense.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.

Chinese Object to Removal Tax.

The Chinese Six Companies of San Francisco have locked horns with the county authorities over the removal of deceased Mongolians from the Chinese cemetery in the northend. It is an established custom among the Chinese to have the bodies of their dead sent to the Flowery Kingdom for final rest. Some 8000 remains resting in this county are now in condition to be shipped but the Six Companies refuse to pay the tax of $10 on each body that the ordinance exacts. The attorneys for the Chinese claim that the tax is illegal and have appealed to District Attorney Swart. Mr. Swart will investigate the matter and give an opinion later. Should it be adverse to the Chinese a suit will be had with hopes of avoiding payment of the fees which will total $80,000.

Thomas Beck Dead.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 17th, after a long illness at his home in Berryessa, Santa Clara county, Thomas Beck passed to his final rest, aged 66 years 11 months and 7 days.

Mr. Beck was the son of the late Wm. Beck, one of the earliest settler of this town. He was born in Australia, coming to California with his parents when a boy six years old.

He learned the blacksmith trade with the late James Hilton, later moving to Los Gatos where he married a daughter of Thos. Vance, a pioneer of Santa Clara county.

Mr. Beck leaves a wife and six children, and several grand children, besides three sisters, Mrs. E. A. Cutting and Miss Grace Beck of San Francisco and Mrs. Joseph Tyson of Niles.

Critical Operation.

A critical operation was performed at Mrs. Huling's sanitarium Monday by Dr. Nagel of San Francisco, Dr. Thomas of Palo Alto, specialists, and Dr. Ross of this city who removed the left eye of young Emile Larrouy, son of Jean Larrouy. The eye had been injured seven months ago and there was danger of the right optic losing its sight. The operation was successful.

Notice of Application to the Board of Trustees of the Town of Redwood City, in the County of San Mateo, State of California, for the Grant of a Right, Privilege and Franchise, and of the Intention of Said Board to Grant the Same:

NOTICE is hereby given that on the 17th day of April, 1911, Edw. F. Fitzpatrick made written application to the Board of Trustees of the Town of Redwood City, in the County of San Mateo, State of California, for the grant of a certain right, privilege and franchise upon the terms and conditions set forth in said written application, which same is hereby expressly referred to for further particulars.

That it is proposed by said Board of Trustees to grant said right, privilege and franchise upon the terms and conditions set forth in said application, and upon such other terms and conditions as may be hereafter imposed and placed by said Board of Trustees.

That the character of said right, privilege and franchise applied for as hereinbefore stated, is as follows, to-wit:

Said Edw. F. Fitzpatrick, in and by said application, asks for the grant and issuance of a franchise, right and privilege to him, his assigns and successors, for the term of Fifty (50) years from and after the date of the granting of the same, to construct, operate and maintain upon, over and across the streets, roads, avenues and high-ways hereinafter mentioned and described, a street rail-road to be operated by electricity, gas, gasolene motors, horse power or any other means of propulsion that may be hereafter used as the motive power for the operation of street rail-roads, and to erect poles and wires along the said streets, roads, avenues and high-ways for transmitting electric power along and upon the said streets, roads, avenues and high-ways for the purposes of said street rail-road.

Said application also asks that the said right, privilege and franchise be granted by said Board of Trustees to permit and authorize the operation upon said streets, roads, avenues and high-ways for the period of time aforesaid, a street rail-road of standard gauge and width, to-wit, Four (4) feet eight and one-half (8 1-2) inches with double tracks (except as hereinafter provided otherwise), and necessary turn-outs, together with all necessary switches, curves, connections, poles, wires and other appliances and appurtenances that may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of a complete connected rail-road system.

And said application also asks that said right, privilege and franchise permit said rail-road to be constructed and maintained upon said streets, roads, avenues and high-ways so that there will be a distance of Five (5) feet Six and one-fourth (6 1-4) inches from the center line of each track to the center line of said streets, roads, avenues and high-ways, and to be placed in such portions and parts of said streets, roads, avenues and high-ways as may be provided for in and by said franchise, right and privilege.

That said franchise, right and privilege as applied for asks for the right, privilege and franchise to so construct, operate and maintain said rail-road upon, along, across and over the following streets, roads, avenues and high-ways situate and being in said Town of Redwood City, to-wit:

Beginning at the South-westerly extremity of Redwood Avenue at the charter line of the said Town of Redwood City, thence Northeasterly along the entire length of said Redwood Avenue to the County Road; thence crossing the said County Road to Mound Street; thence along said Mound Street to Main Street; thence Northerly along said Main Street to Holder street.

Also commencing at the intersection of Mound Street and Chestnut Street, and connecting with the tracks on Mound Street; thence Northerly along said Chestnut Street to the Northerly line thereof (except that said franchise and privilege along said Chestnut Street from Heller Street to the Northerly line of Chestnut Street shall be for a single track only).

Also beginning at the Easterly extremity of Holder Street, and extending thence Westerly to Main Street, and connecting with track on Main Street; thence along East Bradford Street to the lift bridge across Redwood Creek; thence across said bridge and along said East Bradford Street to Washington Street; thence turning in to Washington Street and Southerly along said Washington Street to Center Street; thence turning in to Center Street and along said Center Street to Main Street, connecting with tracks on said Main Street.

Also commencing at the North-easterly line of the Southern Pacific right of way at Broadway, and thence Easterly along said Broadway to Main Street, connecting with tracks on Main Street and on Washington Street.

Notice is further hereby given that sealed bids for the grant of said right, privilege and franchise will be received by said Board of Trustees, and may be filed with the Clerk of said Board up to the hour of 8 o'clock P. M. on Monday, the 26th day of June, 1911. And that the successful bidder and his assigns must during the life of said franchise, pay to said Town of Redwood City, Two (2) per cent of the gross annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said right, privilege and franchise, as more fully expressed in section Three of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, approved March 22nd, 1905, entitled, "An Act providing for the sale of street rail-roads and other franchises in Counties and Municipalities, and providing conditions for the granting of such franchises by legislative or other governing bodies, and repealng conflicting acts," and the amendments to said Acts, to which reference is hereby made.

Notice is further hereby given that said Board of Trustees will meet in open session on Monday, the 26th day of June, 1911, at the hour of 8 o'clock P. M., at the Town Hall and place of business of said Board of Trustees on Main Street, in Redwood City, County of San Mateo, State of California, and will there open and read the said bids and any bids that may be presented, and that said right, privilege and franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who shall make the highest cash bid therefor; provided only that at the time of the opening of said bids, any responsible person, firm or corporation represented, may bid for said right, privilege or franchise a sum not less than Ten (10) per cent above the highest bid therefor. And said bid so made may be raised not less than Ten (10) per cent by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said right, privilege and franchise shall be struck off, sold and awarded by said Board of Trustees to the highest bidder therefor, in Gold Coin of the United States.

Notice is further hereby given that each sealed bid presented for the purchase of said right, privilege and franchise shall be accompanied with cash or a certified check payable to the Treasurer of said Town of Redwood City, for the full amount of said bid, and no sealed bid shall be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith. And the successful bidder shall deposit at least Ten (10) per cent of the amount of his bid with the Clerk of said Board of Trustees before the franchise shall be struck off to him; and if such successful bidder shall fail to make such deposit immediately, then and in that case his bid shall not be received, and shall be void, and the said franchise shall then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned, and such procedure shall be had until said franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to the bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least Ten (10) per cent of the amount of his bid therefor as herein provided.

Notice is further hereby given that said successful bidder shall deposit with the Clerk of said Board of Trustees of said Town of Redwood City, within twenty-four (24) hours of the acceptance of his bid, the remaining Ninety (90) per cent of the amount thereof. And in case he, or it, shall fail to do so, then the said deposit therctofore made shall be forfeited, and the said award of said franchise shall be void. And the said franchise shall then, and there, by said Board of Trustees, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided. Notice is further hereby given that the successful bidder for said right, privilege and franchise shall within Five (5) days after said right, privilege and franchise shall have been struck off, sold and awarded, file a bond running to said Town of Redwood City, with at least Two (2) good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Board of Trustees of said Town
